Local Chapters Join Forces to Fight Fraud

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and CFA Society Los Angeles have agreed to pool their strengths in an effort to raise awareness and educate their respective memberships regarding the ever-present and insidious nature of occupational and investment fraud. Their joint meeting will be held at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, 431 West 7th Street, on Wednesday, July 31, 2013 from 5-8 pm, with presentations from veteran white-collar prosecutors David Allen and Harold Anderson. For more information or to make a reservation, visit: la-acfe.org/meetinginfo.php.

About the ACFE. The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) is the world's largest anti-fraud organization and the premier provider of anti-fraud training and education. Together with 65,000 members, the ACFE is reducing the incidence of fraud and white-collar crime worldwide and inspiring public confidence in the integrity and objectivity of the financial professions.

About CFALA. CFA Society Los Angeles, established in 1931, is a network of investment management professionals in the greater Los Angeles area and is a member society of CFA Institute. The mission of the Society is to promote financial expertise, integrity and professional skills among our members and CFA Charter Candidates.
