Fraud fighters gather in downtown LA for annual conference.

LOS ANGELES — A joint meeting of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) and Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) will be held Wednesday, November 12, 2014 from 10 am to 5 pm, at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, 431 West 7th Street in Los Angeles. The annual event brings together investigators, auditors, accountants, attorneys, and law enforcement personnel from across Southern California, to study the latest trends in fraud, and seek alliances to effectively oppose fraud in one of the world's most active areas for fraudulent schemes. Scholarly presentations will be delivered by well-known fraud fighters: Mark Ruppert of Cedars-Sinai Health System, Kathy Bazoian Phelps of Diamond McCarthy, Mark Mermelstein of Orrick, Olivia Robinson of Background Intelligence, and David Wall of SingerLewak. This event is open to all anti-fraud professionals. For more information or to make a reservation, visit: la-acfe.org/meetinginfo.php.

About the ACFE. The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) is the world's largest anti-fraud organization and the premier provider of anti-fraud training and education. Together with 65,000 members, the ACFE is reducing the incidence of fraud and white-collar crime worldwide and inspiring public confidence in the integrity and objectivity of the financial professions.
